The United States of America

To all to whom these Presents shall come, Greeting:

Whereas, there has been deposited in the General Land Office of the United States a Certificate of the Register of the Land Office of the Territory of Arizona, whereby it appears that pursuant to the Act of Congress approved 26th May, 1862, "To secure homesteads to actual settlers on the Public Domain," and the acts supplemental thereto, the claim of Antonio Soga has been established and duly consummated in conformity to law, for the South half of the South East quarter of the East half of the South East quarter of section thirty-six north ten miles twelve south of Range nineteen East of the first Principal Meridian in Arizona Territory containing one hundred and sixty acres.

According to the Official Plat of the Survey of said land, returned to the General Land Office by the Surveyor General.

Now know ye that there is, therefore, granted by the United States unto the said Antonio Soga the tract of land described. To have and to hold the said tract of land, with the appurtenances thereof, unto the said Antonio Soga and his heirs and assigns forever, subject to any vested and accrued water rights for mining, agricultural, manufacturing, or other purposes, and rights in ditches and reservoir used in connection with such water rights as may be recognized and acknowledged by the local customs, laws, and decisions of courts, and also subject to the right of the proprietors of a mine to stop and remove his ore therefrom, should the same be found to penetrate or intersect the premises hereby granted, as provided by law.

In testimony whereof, I, Benjamin Harrison, President of the United States of America, have caused these letters to be made Patent, and the Seal of the General Land Office to be hereunto affixed.

Given under my hand, at the City of Washington, the thirteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy and of the Independence of the United States the one hundred and fifth.

By the President: Benjamin Harrison

By M. C. Klein, Secretary.
